30 WINNERS . . .

Science Fair Sets Interest Record

Thirty prize winners received awards Tuesday night in the largest Science Fair competition yet at Yoe High School and Ada Henderson School.

Seventeen winners topped a record field of 124 YHS exhibits at Yoe Gym, Mrs. Herbert Nance, Science Fair chairman, told The Herald.

In a separate display at Ada Henderson Cafeteria, 60 grade and junior high students entered exhibits in two categories, poster division and physical and biological projects.

Arley Attaway, AHS principal, said that 13 students won ribbons and cash awards. Prize money for both contests was contributed by the Cameron School System and the Cameron P-TA.

Last year, ten junior high school students entered exhibits which were shown with senior high projects at Yoe Gym. But school officials divided the two into separate functions.

And large crowds attended both exhibits. The Science Fair was held in conjunction with Public School Week, March 5-9, Supt. Charles Zeigler noted.

Both Yoe Gym and AHS Cafeteria were filled with the record field of entries.

COUNT DOWN — About this time of year, The Herald starts a count down on its own, more of less to explain the meaning of the numeral title of this column.

This is 103 minus two. When we go to zero, "ignition" is automatic and the title becomes 103. In other words, this is No. 50 of the 102nd Volume of The Herald, counting predecessor papers. When we hit No. 52, it's the last edition this year, to be followed by Column 103.

We also hope this is A-OK with Herald readers. Anyway, we've started counting. (Really this is a weak explanation of why we talk to ourselves.)

THINGS TO COME — We hope to bring you a report on eyewitness observations of East Berlin by Cameron exchange student Ann Bowman. She describes some grim reminders of the Berlin Wall in correspondence. Her parents are Dr. and Mrs. George Bowman of Cameron. In Ann's stead, Dagmar Von Scholer is staying for a year with the Bowmans and attending Yoe High School.

Ann is staying in Dagmar's home in Augsburg, Germany. Her travels and experiences have been many and varied. And they will be the subject of big features in Central Texas daily papers, her parents inform us.

The story about John Yardley, son of some former Milam Countians, brings the achievements of John Glenn and his space trip close to home. We thank his Milam County relatives and friends for providing basic information on the story. There is more to come.

Interest in the Yoe Campus Science Fair ties a neat package around Yardley's story. Indeed, Cameron and Milam youngsters take greater interest almost daily in science and the bafflement of world, national and area problems. Things are complicated, but these youngsters are gaining the attitude to find answers in all the confusion.

Man Behind Friendship 7'

Natives' Son Designs Ship

A Staff Feature
ONE OF A SERIES

The World, even the Soviet bloc, is still agogue over the feat of Lt. Col. John Glenn and his three-orbit trip in "Friendship 7".

His plaudits were earned, beyond the hopes of any startling screen scenerio or science fiction.

But other plaudits for the years of research and development are earned too. And one of the key men in gettting "Friendship 7" in orbit is the son of native Milam Countians.

He is John Yardley, 37, designer of Glenn's capsule, "Friendship 7". His father, Finley Yardley and mother Johnnie (Patterson) Yardley, now resides in Arizona. But Finley Yardley, son of the late R. F. Yardley, postmaster in Ben Arnold for years, moved to St. Louis to play baseball with the St. Louis Cardinals.

BORN IN ST. LOUIS.

And there, son John, destined to rise to the heights in the futuristic science of now, space flight, was born.

His mother, Mrs. Johnnie Yardley, taught school in Ben Arnold and other country schools before her marriage. Her sister, Mrs. Paul Graves still resides in Sharp.

It all seems to point up the adage: "It's a small world". John Yardley helped Glenn prove it.

The 37 - year - old engineer has been featured along with four other key scientists who assured Glenn's successful 80,000 mile flight into history.

Time, a national news magazine, cited Yardley and four other project Mercury planners in the March 2 issue. Actually, they were highlighted out of 15,000 scientists, techicians and factory workers, all sharing a part in NASA's fantastic project. Others cited were: Project Mercury Director Robert R. Gilruth, who, along with Astronaut Glenn, received NASA's Distinguished Service Medal. Others, Walter C. Williams, Jr., Project Operation Director; Christopher Columbus Kraft, Jr., flight director; and William K. Douglas, 39, flight surgeon.

But, back to Yardley.

GOOD ADVICE

Time wrote: "Handsome and soft - spoken, he spent more than a year preparing the "Friendship 7" for its orbital flight. It was chiefly his advice that led to the decision to leave Glenn's retro-rockets attached on Friendship 7's re-entry."

Born in St. Louis, Yardley graduated from Iowa State College and earned a master's in applied mechanics from Washington University in 1950.

Time reports Yardley "master-minded a team that beat out other companies (Yardley works for McDonnell Aircraft) by coming up with a space -- capsule design similar to that on NASA dream boards, himself devised the capsule's complicated safety system"

He is base manager and capsule designer for McDonnell Aircraft Corp. as well as one of their top engineers.

FRIEND OF GLENN

Time reports further "Yardley worked closely with John Glenn to perfect the capsule, incorporating many of Glenn's suggestions. The two became firm friends, like to spend their rare moments of relaxation water - skiing together."

That is what Yardley, the son of native Milam Countians, has done. Next week, using material written to his family, by their permission, The Herald will continue this man's fascinating story.

Inspectors Review Co. C

Special To The Herald

FORT POLK, La. -- The end of the 13 - week "intensified training" cycle for the 49th Armored Division did not exactly slow the pace for Milam county's tankers in Company C, 3rd Medium Tank Battalion.

The unit, formerly based in the armory at Cameron prior to the 49th's mobilazation last October, is winding up one of its busiest weeks since being on active duty.

Wednesday, March 7, Company C received a double dose of spit-and polish inspections. It was the day of the Annual General Inspection, the big check - up that falls yearly and examines everything from belt buckles to orderly-room files.

MAJOR INSPECTION

On the same day, Fourth US Army inspectors conducted a Command Maintenance Inspection, and the Milam soldiers displayed every piece of tank and vehicle equipment and also all weapons.

"It was a busy day," according to SFC Joe Vybiral, first sergeant, "We got up at 3:30 a. m. to get ready for that one." The Company C area and motor pool entertained more top brass than the men had faced in a long time.

The week also included a trip to the M-1 rifle range for familiarization firing. It was the second time on the range for the unit since it came on active duty since every member of the company qualified with the M-1 in October and November.

The Milam men, along with the rest of the 15,000 49ers, have moved into "Operational Readiness," the second training cycle for the division. It is designed to re-train weaknesses found during the division's first intensifed cycle.

Sgt. Vybral said that the training schedule calls for re - firing of almost all individual and tank weapons during the coming weeks. The new training cycle is scheduled to be climaxed by a giant field maneuver early in May. The maneuver has been tagged "Iron Dragon" and will include the 49th plus its support units, totaling about 18,000 men.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Vybiral and MSGT Pete Kunz, a platoon sergeant, were among nearly 800 persons attending the annual National Guard Association convention held in Galveston last weekend.

The two Milam soldiers were met at the convention by their wives, both of Cameron. Sgt. Kunz was employed at Alcoa's Rockdale Works prior to the callup.

The tankers are expecting a busy time of it in months to come since the 49th has been designated as a Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) unit.

Divisions in the Army's STRAC organization are reported to be deployable to any part of the world in a matter of a few hours. "This may mean practice alerts will be sounded on occasion, and we'll be moving to the field on short notice," Vybiral said.

Sp4 Jimmie Love of Sharp recently returned to the Company C roster after completing an armored vehicle maintenance school at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Love was a barber in Rockdale prior to the callup.

Exchange Student . . .

Compares Life

Poised, articulate Dagmar Von Schoeler, exchange student from Germany, compared school systems and described Texas as "exciting" in a speech before Rotarians here Wednesday.

Introduced by her YHS principal, Jerald Underwood, Dagmar compared American and German school systems in a timely Public School Week address.

Cameron Schools are citing the annual PSW March 5-9 along with Schools throughout Texas. Parents are visiting classes during the week.

FOUR YEAR START

She told Rotarians that the German school system has four years of elementary school for everyone, then various higher schools, including nine years of high school for top students in academics.

"The main difference between schools," said Miss Von Schoeler, "is American schools educate everybody. German Schools educate top students through a 13 - year system in math or languages."

She said tests are given all students after the first four grades and the top students continue to attend public or private high schools through nine years of languages, science, zoology, mathematics and a total of 14 solid subjects.

Students specially talented in music or arts attend special schools. Students not qualifying for the nine - year high school enter apprenticeships and trade schools.

Her course of study has no electives, she said. Miss von Schoeler told Rotarians she has been an exchange student to England twice and to Sweden once.

She described American football and band (she is band sweetheart and an honorary member of the YHS Student Council) as "lots of fun" but nonexistant in German schools.

She said her schooling included tours of famous landmarks in Germany, visit to operas, museums, theatre and other tours with her high school class to points of interest in her native Ausburg, Germany.

And Miss von Schoeler pointed out that German teachers are reserved in the classroom or outside, maintaining distinct command over their students.

LIKE AMERICAN FOOD

"I like American food" she opined. "It is so much easier to prepare than foods available in Germany. We eat heavy black bread and more soups.

In closing she said that she felt that false impressions existed both in Germany and America about life in the two countries.

"People in America have impressions of Germany being all about the Berlin crisis, eating saurkraut and drinking beer and know little of modern Germany. And in Germany we hear about your Texas millionaires, oil wells and cactus," Miss von Schoeler said.

"The reason for exchange students is to explain what they learn in countries they visit and what their homelands are like."

Program chairman was Floyd Sellstrom.

Incumbents Pass Without Opponents In City, School

Filing deadlines passed for both City Council and Cameron School District posts without opposition for five incumbents who seek re - election.

In the city election, voters will choose whether or not they want parking meters, though no new candidates filed for election.

Scheduled April 3, the city election will present two ballots, one for the meter question, the other for election of Incumbents:

Mayor, Coleman Duncum, heading for his second two - year term unopposed; Councilmen Starrett Hickman, Sam Houston and Roy Griffith, who is finishing his 20th year on the Council.

In the Cameron School District, the ballot April 7 will present the names of incumbent and acting Board Secretary Niley Smith and businessman Charlie Burke. By late Wednesday, last day to file, it appeared certain no other candidate was seeking election.

Only two posts were up for election April 7, those of Smith, who is completing his first three - year term, and the vacancy created by Dr. David Shapiro's resignation. Burke will take that post.

Interest in local elections is expected to be limited to the meter question and the May 5 Democratic primary.

Group Petitions For Improvements

The City Council Tuesday heard a request from a delegation of six Negro spokesmen seeking a long range program for improvement in the Negro section of Cameron.

W. S. Turner, spokesman for the group, presented a petition from Negro residents asking the City's help in cleaning up, providing paving and sewerage service and enforcing laws to keep their children in school. Turner is a teacher at O. J. Thomas School.

Mayor Coleman Duncum appointed Councilmen John A. Smith and Sam Houston, along with city department heads, to assist in planning ways to begin the projects.

In other business, the Council sold the City's oldest fire truck, a 1925 model, to Brazos Varrisco, of Bryan for the high bid of $476. Varrisco is a collector of antique autos and fire trucks.

And the Council approved beginning on the North Austin sewerline extension. City Secretary John Andres noted that 17 property owners had signed a petition for a six - inch sewerline and have made down payments on cost of installation.

Among regular reports from department heads, a request for 300 gallons of paint and a pump impeller for the Municipal Swimming pool was heard.

Also discussed was extension of E. 12th St. paving from North Jackson to North Harding.

TEXAS RANKS SECOND

The world market continues to be a highly important outlet and source of income for Texas farmers. Texas Farmers Have Big Stake In World Trade

COLLEGE STATION — The world market continues to be a highly important outlet and source of income for Texas farmers. They supplied the export market with products worth $447 million in the 1960-61 fiscal year, ranking just behind California among all the states, according to a recent U. S. Department of Agriculture study.

The principal commodities produced for export by Texans included cotton, grain sorghum, wheat, rice and livestock. David Brown, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service said "We need to continue to keep our eyes on events affecting foreign markets because they have a real dollars and cents meaning to Texas agriculture even though our farms and ranches are a long way from foreign markets."

U. S. Agricultural exports are running at record levels. Last year $5 billion worth of U. S. farm products were exported. Sixty million acres of U. S. corpland are producing for export. That is about three times the harvested acreage in Texas.

The USDA study, in appraising the stake Texas farmers have in foreign trade, showed that the State's equivalent share of the nation's crop exports included 2 million bales of cotton, 46 million bushels of grain sorghum, 39 million bushels of wheat and 6.4 million hundredweight of rice.

On the basis that foreign trade is a two - way street, Texas also plays a part in the imports of agricultural products. Many are non - competitive consumer items such as coffee, tea, cocoa, spices,

Milam ASCS Report

By Milam County ASCS

It is anticipated that participation in the 1962 Feed Grain Program will be greater than 1961. In Milam County, more than 2-3 of the total 1961 participants have already signed to participate in 1962 with almost a month of sign-up time left. The final date to sign an intention is March 30.

The greater number of acres diverted so far is grain sorghum. Not only is the payment rate higher for grain sorghum in Milam County, but total acreage is greater in grain sorghum than in corn. However, on the other hand, the support price in 1961 for grain sorghum was higher than for corn and while county support prices have not yet been announced, the national support prices on corn and grain sorghum are the same as 1961.

From now on, Alva E. Sanders, County Office Manager, believes the office will be increasingly busy explaining the program to farmers and helping them fill out the necessary forms indicating their "intention to participate" in the 1962 feed grain program. Under the program, diversion payments are available to farmers who shift a stated percentage of their acreage formerly planted to corn and grain sorghum into an approved soil conserving practice. By cooperating in the program, growers also qualify for price support on their 1962 crops of corn and grain sorghum.

The County Office Manager urges farmers to get in touch with the ASCS County Office without delay if they wish further information about the 1962 feed grain program. The signup period for the corn and grain sorghum program

Murray-Go-Round

By Tom Murray

TROUBLE IS Brewing in the Southwest Conference.

Do not be shocked if the tax-supported members of the SWC pull out and leave the privately-endowed schools to play in their empty stadiums.

It is not likely the major schools are going to allow themselves to be legislated into mediocrity while discriminating Texans are clamoring for the best in sports.

It has been suggested that University of Texas, Arkansas, Texas A & M and Texas Tech -- whose alumni purchase most of the Southwest football tickets, join Oklahoma and Louisiana State to form a powerful state university loop.

Preposterous Ask Calfornia what happened to the once mighty Pacific Coast Conference, now dead as the Dodo bird.

SAY, HOW about Syracuse setting an NCAA record for consecutive defeats in basketball? Spend that much money for football and what's left for basketball? TCU's Sonny Gibbs, the Emprie State of college football, is eligible to sign a pro football contract since his class graduates in June. Conscious of this, Abe Martin immediately began pumping him as a sure - fire all - America quarterback and saw that Sonny got elected captain of the 1962 Horned Frogs.

Bud Shrake, clever Dallas News columnist, says TCU will have the best backfield in the SWC this fall, an All - America End in 6-4, 240-pound Lynn Morrison and one of the country's top sophomore linemen, Ken Henson, the 6-6, 260-pound center lost to surgery in '61 ..... Perhaps OU will bring suit against Texas Southern for discrimination. The Houston-based Negro School enticed dusky Roy Hicks, a 6-10 high - jumper, to leave Soonerland.

Bob Rogers, Aggie basketball coach who lost three straight SWC championships with what many call the best material. says of his school: "People like to come out to see A & M Win or loose -- they're for or against us. There's no in - between," ..... Umpire Dusty Boggess calls Willie Mays the greatest baseball player who ever lived ..... Remember Sam Boyd, fired at Baylor in favor of John Bridges? John may wish he could again trade with Sam, vice - president of a Cleburne air-conditioning company.

Would you say the Dallas News' Charles Burton is the most misinformed writer in sports? Shortly before SMU tied the can to Bill Meek, he wrote: "Bill Meek, barring a direct hit by an atomic bomb, will coach th eSMU football team for at least another five years." ..... Mike Campbell, linebacking coach at UT on Pat Culpepper, hard - nosed Steer linebacker: "He always has his ignition turned on."

One major league ump claimed Bob Feller's fast ball could've gone through the armor plate of a battleship ..... Warren Spahn, on Texan Roy McMillan, the Braves' shortstop: "At least half the games I won last season, Roy won for me with a great play."

Hear about the fellow who claimed his grandpop was an old Indian fighter Said that was because his grandmother was an old Indian ..... An Austin radio announcer toned, late one night: "Remember that the Univeristy of Texas is a five - year undergraduate school -- one of the very few. Four years studying and one year trying to find a place to park." Herbert Hoover and Prime Minister Nehru visited Yankee stadium for a double - header and were announced to the crowd. Told he had gotten a bigger ovation when his name was announced in the lineup, Yogi Berra seemed astonished, "Why not," he asked. "I'm a better hitter."

A display table of items from Latin America was featured at the family night supper and table decorations included an impressionist Carmen Mirando with a fruit filled hat brim. The Young Peoples' Department presented a mission program followed by the film "Missionary to Chili."

At the final session of the study, Mrs. J. J. Heitman showed colored slides of Venzuela, a collection made during their long residence in that country.

Frank McGregor

Frank McGregor Seeks Election To State Senate

Frank B. McGregor, 39, formerly of Bell County and former Flotorial Representative from Bell, Falls and McClennan counties from 1948 to 1950 has announced his candidacy for State Senate District 13 an office now held by Sen. Jarrard Secrest.

McGregor was first elected State Representative when he lived with his parents, the late Col. and Mrs. Joel I. McGregor who lived at Midway. His father was the Temple - Belton Kaiser - Fraizer dealer, president of the Bell County Farm Bureau and was chairman of the Citizens Committee to purchase right - of - way for the new expressway through Bell County.

McGregor moved to Waco after graduation from Baylor Law School and opened a law office. He is a graduate of Baylor University with three degrees, Bachelor of Arts Master of Arts, and a Law Degree. In addition, McGregor has served as a State Representative from 1948 - 1950 and has been re - elected in 1954, 1956, 1958 and 1960. He taught at Baylor from 1947 to 1958 with exception of the time he was recalled to active duty during the Korean conflict. He has two brothers, Joel McGregor Jr., of Marlin, principal of the Marlin Elementary School; and Charles McGregor, a lawyer, who now lives in Houston.

At this time, in addition to practicing law and serving in the legislature, McGregor, with his wife Doris, and his three children, raised cattle near Reisel and College Station in Central Texas.

During World War II McGregor served as a pilot in the Pacific Theater of Operations. During the Korean conflict, he was a pilot and the Staff Judge Advocate of James Connally Air Force Base.

McGregor is a Democrat, a Baptist, member of the VFW and the American Legion, Bayor Masonic Lodge, Karem Shrine, Santa Gertrudis Breeders International, Farm Bureau and the three different PTA's where his children attend school.

McGregor reports that he has had encouragement to run for the Senate against Sen. Jarrard Secrest, but declined due to personal friedship for Senator Secrest. However, now that Sen. Secrest is going to be elected our new lieutenant governor, McGregor feels that Lt. Governor Secrest should have a friend from his home district with him in the Senate rather than one who had planned to run for Lieutenant Governor.

While McGregor has been fighting to have the present sales tax revised, where the businessmen and merchants can "live with it." McGregor reports that he does favor sales taxes over a personal income tax, which he is against, and that he is the only candidate in the race who not only voted for a teacher pay raise and also voted for the revenue raising measure "to pay the bill". On the other hand, his opponent voted for the teacher pay bill but against any and all bills which would raise the money to pay the bill.

W-2 Tax Forms Important Document

That W-2 tax form is a mighty important document.

According to A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service, Temple, refunds cannot be paid without required W-2 withholding certificates, credit cannot be given for taxes withheld; and failure to include the certificate with your tax return will mean return of the incomplete form to the taxpayer.

The IRS representative also reminded taxpayers that in a joint 1961 return, where both parties worked, W-2's for each must be attached. And when either or both parties to a return held more than one job during the year, all W-2's must be attached.

Farmers prefer controls to low prices. When Benson offered them a choice of $1.40 a bushel and no corn allotments well over two - thirds of them voted for the $1.40 a bushel. Even the following year when the support with allotments was lowered to $1.25 a bushel about 60 per cent voted for controls to continue. They didn't consider that freedom to plant as much as possible was even worth 10 cents a bushel.

In 1961 farmers in Milam County received almost 3-4 million dollars for reducing their grain acreage. With the grain crop a near failure think how much worse it would have been without this assistance. And the County Committee was not told to cut the payment rate down to reflect the condition of the crop like they were in 1956 when there was a payment for reducing cotton.

Wheat can be grown and sold on over 200 farms in Milam County. Had Shuman had his way the 15 acre exemption to grow and sell wheat would have been done away with years ago, and Milam County would have even less wheat farmers than it has dairy farms.

The Soil Bank Program has been in existance since 1956, while grain surpluses have steadily grown bigger until 1961. So in 1960 rather than make anymore ghost towns in the farming areas of the United States that grow less than 100 bushels of corn or 5000 pounds of maize or two bales of cotton to the acre, Congress refused to appropriate any more money to expand the 27 million acres already under control in the Soil Bank.

Ten years ago all basic crops were supported at 90 per cent of parity, as soon as overall support was set at 106 per cent and sugar beats at 98 per cent of parity. Other basic crop supports were drastically reduced. If the 90 percent of the past three years prices were adopted it could be expected to further reduce prices about 3 per cent a year, but 10 per cent the first year.

Now who did lowering support prices help? Not the taxpayer for the past Secretary of Agriculture spent more than all previous Secretaries of Agriculture spent. Not the farmers for about 20 per cent of them had to leave their farms to join the unemployed in towns. Oh yes, it helped the Grain Storage owners to the tune of a million dollars a day. No wonder the big storage owners are against a grain reduction program.

NHS Relates History, Goals

The National Honor Society and its activities have become an essential function in the administration of a modern secondary school.

At Yoe High, the NHS was set up in January 1958 with 27 charter members. The Yoe Chapter drew up a constitution and sent it to the National office. A charter was granted to the chapter and the right to wear the official insignia was conferred. Members are not required to pay any dues or membership fees.

Among these goals were enthusiasm for good scholarship, encouragement for a desire for students to render service to schools and community, a plan for evaluation of the student himself and his leadership abilities, to stimulate students to observe and practice those acts of others that develop good character and encourage ment to continue his learning and education.

Listed for Junior NHS were standards of conduct, leadership, advancement and others.

The history of the club relates back to 1900 when school enrollment began to increase over the country.

The NHS and the National Junior Honor Society have been related with schools since 1921. Goals and aims were set for secondary education.

In Chicago, in 1919, a committee was appointed to study the issue of the National Association of Secondary School Principals meeting. The following year, a report from committee and a proposed constitution was presented at the same meeting and met with favor among the members of the Association.

In the early days of the organization, only function was to be a member. Later principals and other school officials realied the importance of the society and that the society provides a force of leadership in schools.

St. Monicas Ladies Society Meets; New Flag Given

St. Monicas Ladies and Christian Mothers Society held their regular meeting Tuesday at the Simon George Hall.

Mrs. Louis Hollas, president, called the meeting to order. Rev. John Geiser opened with a prayer. Committee reports were given by chairmen of the Spiritual Development, Library and Literature, Altar and Sanctuary and Rural Life.

A new papal flag for St. Monicas Church was presented to Rev. Geiser by Mrs. Hollas. Mrs. Al bert Michalka was appointed chairman of a study and amendment committee to the constitution. Mrs. Barney McClaren and Mrs. Clarence Hanel were appointed to assist Mrs. Michalka.

The Cameron District meeting will be held in Caldwell March 18. Mrs. Frankie Ehler was elected 9 delegate to the Diocesan Convention to be held in Bryan April 9 and 10. Mrs. Michalka was elected alternate. Mrs. Hollas will also attend the Convention as a member of the Diocesan Board.

The ladies voted to have a telephone installed in Simon - George Hall. The Society has joined the Gold Bond Stamp Plan where by project points are given for stamp books. The points will be applied toward needed kitchen equipment. Mrs. Ehler is chairman of the project.

After the business meeting an open meeting was held for the men. The program was given by James Meredith and Grady Stidham of Waco. Stidham is formerly of Cameron. Both men pointed out the aims, needs and benefits of the Bishops Crusade for Vocation and urged full participation from the parish.

BRA Invests Huge Sum For Water

The Brazos River Authority is investing $24 million in Brazos River watershed dams and reservoirs to assure future Texans there will be plantiful supplies of water on hand when it is needed.

The BRA has contracted to pay the Federal government $24 million for water conservation storage spaces in reservoirs already constructed or under construction in the Brazos watershed and is planning to spend another $64 million in reservoirs for water not yet off the drawing boards.

The $24 million payment is for 845,000 acre feet of space in the Federal reservoirs in which to store flood and storm waters so that water ordinarily wasting into the Gulf of Mexico will be on hand for the cities, industries and irrigators of the future when they need it.

As J. Howard Fox, president of the Authority's board of directors puts it, "We of the BRA board firmly believe that Texas will grow, grow and we know that as this growth matures, the people and the industries must have water to survive and prosper. It is our aim to see that the water is available in the Brazos river watershed when it is needed."

To the ordinary state agency, this $24 million gamble wouldn't be such a step. But for the BRA it is a district vote of confidence that the customers for this water will be created by the growth of the state. The Authority, while created by state law, is self-supporting and receives no revenue from state taxes. It sells water and power to pay for its planning and conservation practices.

The action of the authority in contracting for the conservation water storage spaces allows the U. S. Corps of Engineers to build large dams in the watershed and at the same time create "banks" for deposits of water that can be used for cities, industries, irrigation, recreation and other purposes.

The Federal government may build dams and lakes on the stream of Texas but only primarily for flood control, recreation and wildlife. It cannot expend money for water conservation space.

The way the agreements work is this. The Corps of Engineers plans a dam and reservoir for flood control purposes. The BRA then says, "How much water conservation space can be added on top of your flood water space."

The corps comes up with a figure based on the run - off of the stream and the BRA agrees to pay the cost of adding that much space to the dams and reservoirs.

The water in this space then is available for use.

The BRA then must find customers, cities, industries, irrigators, etc., to whom it can sell the water, so as to help pay off the Federal government contract.

The BRA board of directors have taken even another step to provide even more conservation water storage spaces in Federal reservoirs, some of which are not yet off the drawing boards.

They have signed letters of intent to purchase an additional $64 million worth of storage space, this amount to pay for $2,758,900 acre feet storage in the reservoirs.

Here are the contracts already perfected for water storage spaces the lake and location, amount of storage space in acre feet and capital cost:

Lake Belton on the Leon, 360,700, $4,992,607.

Lake Waco on the Bosque, 104-100, $5,621,000

Lake Proctor on the Leon, 31-400, $1,707,900.

Lake Stillhouse Hollow on the Lampasas, 204,900, $6,895,630.

Lake Somerville on Yegua Creek 143,900, $4,861,615

Letters of intent to purchase have been signed on the following proposed reservoirs:

Lake Millican on the Navasota, 2,350,000, $45,000,000

Lake Lanesport on the San Gabriel, 193,200, $9,675,000

Lake North San Gabriel on same 126,700, $5,694,000

Lake South San Gabriel on same, 59,000, $3,708,000.

April 15 Deadline For Auto Inspection

AUSTIN — Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today there will be no extension of the April 15 deadline for inspection of all motor vehicles in Texas.

"The April 15 deadline this year falls on a Sunday, a day when most inspection stations are closed," Garrison noted. "We are not asking these stations to remain open on that day, and, under the law, they can be no extension of the deadline.

He said approximately 2,000,000 vehicles in the state remain to be inspected during the remaining 10 weeks of the 1962 inspection period. He urged motorists to get their inspector stickers early, pointing out that as the deadline approaches waiting lines will begin forming.

We would like to point out that the purpose of motor vehicle inspections is to discover any defect that might become a link in a chain of events leading to an accident," the DPS Director said.

New Year . . . New Challenges

The Cameron Chamber of Commerce begins another year this week.

It faces major problems, ones that affect every person in Cameron, and indirectly, most of Milam County itself.

The Chamber is the Milam vehicle that set in motion Operation BIG in January, the most significant agricultural development in Central Texas since the Soil Bank affected cotton and maize crops. With proper technical application, Milam farm production can increase measureably within five years.

Now the Chamber, already giving a rightful boost to Milam agriculture, can consider asking agriculture to give a boost to employment of Milam workers. That means industry.

The Milam Farm Bureau four months ago recommended that rural communities work toward development of industry. It is a wise recommendation. No longer are we agriculture, business or industry. We are agri-business-industry. The Milam economy is integrated by cross interests of parttime farmers working at Walled Lake Door, parttime cattle producers working at Alcoa, among others. They have established mutual interests.

The Cameron Chamber can take the lead in furthering the interests of Milam County by bringing these segments closer together, now for increased farm production, now for establishment of payroll industry and later for greater growth of all segments (now one) of the Milam economy.

BIG . . . Federal Or Free?

Texas A & M President Earl Rudder was quoted in a daily newspaper this week, saying it was necessary for private enterprise and the farmer to join in Operation BIG or the Federal government would take over the job.

His remarks were apparently directed at the Freeman Farm proposals which would increase controls as well as reduce production in agricultural America.

Operation BIG stands for Blackland Income Growth, an effort to boost the $2,000 plus average farm income to a point more in line with the $4,000 plus income in Texas cities. The Blackland program encompasses some 50 counties, Milam among them.

Mr. Rudder's comments were timely, not only in the light of the contest of domestic agriculture philosophies, but in view of agriculture problems in Soviet Russia.

The Soviet problem is one of under production for Russia's 200 millions. Premier Khruhschev is expected to urge greater production in a speech next Monday.

It is a curious contrast. Farm observers say that major farm interest groups agree that surpluses so costly to the taxpayer today should be reduced. And to get that reduction, there must be a cutback in production and cultivated land.

There is a possibility that the problems of surplus production today may be nonexistent in a few years. And a reversal of agriculture policy toward greater production could be even costlier.

With greater reduction of small farmers, small -town America will gradually, if not quickly be gone. A great percentage of towns under 1,500 already have been reduced to empty buildings and aging population.

Population is increasing rapidly in this country, like world population. In the underproductive countries, some behind the Iron Curtain, food will be in great demand as their populations soar.

What greater weapon can this nation sustain, outside of nuclear armaments, than a promise of foodstuffs when Soviet Russia cannot produce enough for her own people, let alone export to satelites?

Reductions on a short term basis will likely be put into effect. But in the doing, rural America could be shot asunder, a vital defeat for U. S. cold war efforts.

The BIG proposals, combining business, government agency and technical agricultural advice (such as A & M), would enable this Cen - Tex area to develop its rural areas as it develops its cities, without major government intervention.

Mr. Rudder's warning is timely and thought provoking. It makes us realize: Centralization can be efficient.

It can hamstring the most effective segment of the American economy today . . Agriculture, and further damage small -town USA.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Wonders If The Herald Has Enough Zeros To Report The Full National Debt

Dear editar:

I was looking over a stack of bills which arrived on the first of the month and to get my mind off the subject I opened up a newspaper and the first article I noticed said that the cost of living stayed the same last month, it didn't go up or down.

What I'd like to know is where does the government get its figures?

The cost of living, as far as I can tell, has been going up every month for the past twenty- five years, and sometimes it doesn't even wait thirty days, it goes up right in the middle of a month.

It's my theory that the experts in Washington who read the economic index and whatever else they read to get these figures on the cost of living are sort of like meter readers. If a meter reader misreads your meter one month and yiur bill is a little lower than you figured it'd be, that doesn't mean the cost of living has dropped, it only means the error will be corrected on the next reading and the cost of living will get back up high where it's always been.

Since that article on the cost of living didn't get my mind off my bills, I turned a page and ran into an article that made me feel better.

According to it, the United States government now owes a trillion dollars, which, if The Cameron Herald has got enough zeroes on its typesetting machine, reads $1,000,000,000,000.00, and if you haven't got that many zeroes you'd better buy some more as the chances of the figure getting smaller are mighty slim and you've got to keep abreast of the times. Just to be on the safe side, maybe you ought to order a dozen or so more.

The reason I felt better about this is that if the Federal government can live apparently cheerfully under this load, why should a few monthly bills bother me?

By the way, if you can find anybody who can prove his cost of living is less now than it was the last time he looked, I wsh you'd get hold of him and bring him into town. I'd like to talk to him, if he's able to have visitors.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

TYC Wins For Orphan Institute

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Although the Texas Youth Conucil lost its fight for a legislative appropriation of $100,000 to add more officers to its Juvenile Parole System, it just won a battle for the benefit of orphans in state institutions.

Attorney General Will Wilson turned over the deed to a $200,000 Bell County ranch along with a check for 312,446 to Dr. James A. Turman, Youth Council director. Presentation represented the outcome of a four - year court battle. Heirs of the late Mrs. Parrie Haynes contested her passing the property to the state.

Dr. Turman said the orphans of Texas will receive all benefits from the 4,160-acre ranch on the Lampasas River. It will be used as a summer camp and activity center for orphan's homes. Youth Council will raise cattle, pigs and sheep there to help feed the thousands of children in its care.

HEARINGS SHOCK TURMAN

Speaker of the House James A. Turman, candidate for lieutenant governor and former educator, expressed concern about the House Testbook committee, which he appointed.

Turman was shocked when he heard that a witness in an Amarillo testbook hearing alleged that Rep. Ronald Roberts of the committee was a "communist."

"I am afraid the committee members have been too nice and open about letting anyone appear to talk about any sort of censorship", Turman said. He is worried about the committee getting too far astray of its goal of studying the testbook situation in Texas.

In an Idependence Day address at Washington - on - the-Brazos, he advocated the teaching of Texas history in all grade levels, and declared, "I think it is a mistake -- a sad mistake -- for our educational system in Texas to relegate our great state's history into a sort of grammar school fairytale."

The speaker may be tempted-- or forced-- to touch on the subject again Wednesday when he is honored guest at the Public Schools' Week celebration in Jasper, Texas.

SPACE AGE SEMINAR

Vice - President Lyndon B. Johnson, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, came to town to tell a congregation of high school counselors how the move into space will affect American Youth.

The Vice - President's talk was the highlight of a two - day conference at the University of Texas which featured a NASA exhibit of space vehicles and a talk on "Space Satellites" by NASA representative Dr. Robert Krebs.

VAST ROADWORK UNDERWAY

In keeping with its claim that Texas leads the nation in highway building, the State Highway Commission issued orders to proceed with $18,000,000 worth of road building, planning and repairs throughout the state.

Biggest assignment was an okay to purchase right - of - way on three projects on Interstate Loop 635 in Dallas County at a cost of about $6,410,000. The Commission also authoried right - of - way on a 1.4 - mile section of Interstate Highway 10 in Harris County for $2,500,000. Original estimate was only $600,000.

Other expensive items included: Purchase of 1,900,000 worth of right - of - way on US 90 in Bexar County; plans for development of US 290 out of Houston at a starting cost of $2,810,000; $297,000 to repair freee damage in the Abilene district; a $680,000 right of - way okay for a two - mile segment in San Antonio and $477,800 for relocation of US 59 around Wharton and El Camp.

Less costly projects are set for Gillesprie, Hudspeth, Martin, El Paso and Nolan counties.

SUNDAY NO EXCEPTION

Just because April 15 will fall in a Sunday this year, drivers won't be allowed to put off auto inspection until the following day. Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the State Department of Public Safety, says April 15 is the deadline -- Sunday or no.

Garrison said he won't ask inspection stations to stay open that Sunday, either. So, owners of the 2,000,000 cars in the state will just have to take care of this problem by the 14th of April, or risk arrest.

Price, spice and everything nice!

Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole carload of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? (The wonder would be if you settled for anything less—once you get your hands on one at your Chevrolet dealer's!) CHEVROLET

CONFIDENCE

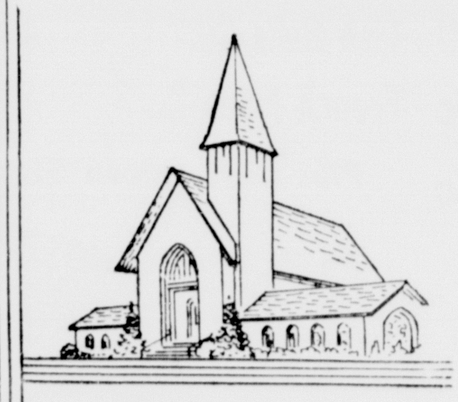
This man is placing not only his money in the bank, but his faith as well. With this expression of confidence is his willingness for the bank to invest his money at interest, reserve the "principal" for him and retain the "earned interest" for itself.

Even so, as a person yields himself to Christ as the keeper and Shepherd of souls, he is to do so with the willingness that thereafter his life shall be lived, under the guidance of God, as an "investment" for the glory of God.

Do you know the serenity, the peace, that comes with the knowledge that "All is well with my soul"; and do you daily experience the joy of being able to say, "I'll live for Him Who died for me"?

Whatever else you might have tried for "security" and "satisfaction", try Christ—trust Him, and Him alone.

"Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed." (Romans 9:33.)



"Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ"
I Corinthians 3:11.

Memories Of Mr. Hugh Powell

By a life long friend
Rev. M. W. Bamberton

Send forth thy roots that ye thrive
Oh gentle fragrant rose
And Beautify the place which marks
Our Sainted husband's repose

Then Let thy buds burst into bloom
And spread their fragrance round
About his final resting place
Within the silent ground.

Then God within His garden stopped
To pluck one flower fair
He chose our loving husband
So sweet, so pure, so rare.

We cannot help but rue the day
He took from our side
Because He has our shining light
Our fondest hope of pride.

But since His reign on earth was long,
We now see life Anew,
And feel that God is always near
To judge the things we do.

We strive to do no worldly wrong
And go to Him in Prayer,
That we may see His shining face
Some day with him up there.

Oh, please dear God come down tonight
And bless our lowly home,
Where once His light shone pure and bright
When he was all our own.
